this morning at 10 o'clock. The committee will endeavor to show the members of the board that the street is badly in need of repair, and that it will be cheaper to put down paving instead of attempting to improve the roadbed with gravel.

Twelfth Street is one of the most frequently traveled streets on the Southside. It is the highest point in this section, and is the natural watershed which has made the need of a storm sewer unnecessary. The street is located upon a ridge, and as a consequence all loose soil which is used

Commissioners Release Prisoner, Despite Mandate of Criminal Court.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fayettevillo, N. C., May 5.—As a re-lit of refusal to hold a prisoner whom udge Garland S. Ferguson had ordered leld for a $200 peace bond, the county commissioners of Bladen County, C. V. Lyon, A. A. Clark and A. L. Tatum, have been ordered to appear before Judge Ferguson here Thursday and show cause why they should not be held in contempt of court and receive the punishment prescribed by law.

This situation grew out of the action of Judge Ferguson at the March term of Judge Ferguson at the March term of Bladen Criminal Court, in requiring hat Jeff Davis, a white man, convicted that Jeff Davis, a white man, convicted of crime, be not released at the expiration of his thirty-days' sentence until he had given a justified peace bond of $200, on account of threats he had made against Deputy Sheriff. A. A. Wright. At the expiration of Davis's sentence, recently, he was unable to give bond, and the commissioners refused to hold him longer. When Judge Ferguson heard of it he issued the contempt order, which is returnable at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The punishment for this offense is discretionary with the judge. At the last term of Cumberland County Court Judge Ferguson had the Cumberland commissioners indicted for disobeying a grand jury order to have the jail and grand jury order to have the jail and Creery, and Chief Clerk S. D. Per-kinson, Jr., in command. The forces started to work at First Street and moved westward to the city limits be-tween Main and Clay.

In addition to the Street Cleaning Department, the children of five schools in the western part of the city, about 2,700 in number, the Boy Scouts, and all good and conscientious citizens were enlisted in the cause, while the campaign has the moral support of about fourteen organizations of about fourteen organizations
